

Wild Winter Snowshoe

This workshop is led in partnership with the Montana Discovery Foundation and the Montana Wilderness Association. We will begin by taking a snowshoe hike to learn about MWA's tracking and monitoring program on Flesher pass. Then we'll head to Lincoln for a guided tour of Sculpture in the Wild and some fun outdoor education including Goldsworthy Art and Survival Fire-building.

SNOWSHOES PROVIDED - you're welcome to bring your own as well!

This is early March in Montana - please bring warm layers for snowshoeing and sturdy, comfortable shoes for touring Sculpture in the Wild

Lunch will NOT be included in this workshop. Please bring your own brown bag lunch to be eaten in Lincoln

When: Thursday, March 9 2017, 8:30 am to 4:00 pm

Where: We will meet at the US Forest Service office at 2880 Skyway Dr (across from the airport)

We will carpool from Helena. Participants who would like to drive and can take passengers, please contact Lauren Rivers at Lauren@montanaeea.org

Agenda:

8:30 – Meet in Helena

The carpool will drive toward Lincoln road. Flesher Pass is off the road roughly 45 minutes away

9:30 – Arrive at Flesher pass

Tracking program overview, snowshoe hike on the Continental Divide

11:30 – Leave for Lincoln

12:00 – Brown bag lunch at Sculpture in the Wild (please provide your own lunch)

12:30 – Tour Sculpture in the Wild

1:30 – Goldsworthy Art project in the wild

2:00 - Survival/fire Activity (if time permits)

2:30 – Leave for Helena

4:00 – Arrive back in Helena

3:30 - 5:30 – Exhibitor Fair at Great Northern Best Western Hotel

6:00 – MEEA Social & Awards Ceremony at ExplorationWorks Science Center